

2011 COWTOWN CLASSIC Summary

The week-end of March 17 – 20, 2011 was the time for the 27th Annual COWTOWN CLASSIC, sponsored by The Legacy Arabian Horse Club of Texas.

This year, 277 horses competed in the show and a total of 934 class entries crossed the In-Gate areas during the show. Show Management, Show Volunteers and the Legacy Arabian Horse Club thank all exhibitors for attending our show.

Among the Special Awards offered at the show is a $75 Added Money Award for the winners of the JOTR Championship Classes. This award is sponsored by Tracy Caruth of Caruth Arabians and her stallion DA NAPITOV +/. This year, these awards were presented to:

Emma Kate Kendrick of LaPorte, Texas, on her horse KRA AFIRE SONG, for winning the Half-Arabian/Anglo-Arabian Country English Pleasure JOTR Championship.

Claire Wimberly of Friendswood, Texas on her horse SUGARR PLUM, for winning the Arabian Western Pleasure JOTR Championship. Her second year in a row, well done!

Allison Harp of Kyle, Texas, on her horse WVY FLASH AFIRE, for winning the Arabian English Pleasure JOTR Championship. This is Allison's second consecutive year in winning this award.

Danielle Gruber of Friendswood, Texas, on her horse AVATAR PA, for winning the Arabian Hunter Pleasure JOTR Championship.

Jacquelyn King of Tyler, Texas, on her horse MI MINI ME, for winning the Half-Arabian/Anglo-Arabian English Pleasure JOTR Championship.
